

USE OF VILLAGE HALL MEETING ROOMS

ROOM USE POLICY

1. Village of Fayetteville functions take precedence over all other individuals, groups, or entities. (i.e. Board of Trustees, Planning, Zoning, etc.)
2. You must reside in the Village of Fayetteville to be able to use the meeting rooms unless your group or organization is affiliated with the Village of Fayetteville or you have a member in your organization that is a resident of the Village of Fayetteville.
3. The Village of Fayetteville does not either support or deny interfaith or other activities but has a right to restrict them based on village financial policies in effect.
4. Use of the rooms is limited to activities for which no fee is charged or by non-profit entities and is at the discretion of the Village of Fayetteville.
5. The meeting rooms will be reserved through the Village of Fayetteville clerk's office in person or by calling 637-9864 and will be on a first come first serve rule, unless the Village of Fayetteville has to use the room on an emergency basis. You may schedule multiple monthly meetings, however if there is a conflict the Board of Trustees will settle the scheduling conflict.
